REMEMBERING THE SAINTS

Hazel Shell
November 11, 1924 - November 5, 2017

Marshall Brown
January 9, 1934 - February 13, 2018

All Saints is a day of remembrance for the saints, with the New Testament meaning of all Christian people of every time and place. We celebrate the communion of saints as we remember the dead, of the church universal, our local congregation, and our family.

You are welcome to light a candle in remembrance of all the saints close to your heart as you come forward today for Holy Communion.

May we be "surrounded by the great cloud of witnesses" today and be encouraged by their life and the lessons they taught us.

JOIN WITH US IN PRAYER THIS WEEK:

Congregational Concerns: Soon Gil (Soon Young Carroll), Elaine Schneider, Sheila Frace and Family, Joanne Gheen Brooks (Barb Powell), Alex Rapavi (Todd Ringenbach)

Residential Care: Garnette Dupont

Local Concerns: The people SHARE, Inc. serves throughout the McLean area, the people in Appalachia who can't repair their own homes and the volunteer work teams from our church and around the US who go to help.

Church Concerns: Bishop Sharma Lewis, District Superintendent Cathy Abbot, the General Conference Delegates, and the work of the Commission on the Way Forward.

COMMUNITY LABYRINTH WALK

Saturday, November 10, 2018

5:00 PM – 7:00 PM

Come anytime during these hours

You are invited to a time of meditation and contemplation in a quiet, peaceful setting open to all. A labyrinth is a path which leads, via a circuitous route, to the center of an intricate design and back out again. It's a space to think about our relationships with ourselves, one another, our planet and God. Unlike a maze, a labyrinth is easy to navigate. Each person walks the labyrinth in their sock feet at their own pace and for their own reasons. There is no pressure and people are silent. Often nature sounds are played very quietly in the background.
